

Jr.KG. SECTION

APRIL 2017

Display Corner : To facilitate learning by exploring and play way method. Display corners are set up to introduce new letters in English and Hindi and different concepts in EVS and Maths. Children are encouraged to explore these corners to facilitate learning by doing.

Readiness Activities : It helps in developing muscles in child's hand and fingers which helps children to get ready for all the writing and crafting to be done.

Scribbling Activity ,Paper tearing and Paper Pasting : To develop fine motor skills and develop the muscles .

Palm Printing : Palm printing activity was conducted as a part of introduction of EVS concept 'Body Parts'. Print of both the palms were taken on scrap book . Children were also explained the functions of hands and other parts of the body.

Sports and games : Sports are nice physical activities that provide freedom from the stress. It helps in improving physical health and mental fitness. Outdoor sports and games are conducted regularly for students.

Mahatma Hansraj birth anniversary : Mahatma Hansraj the founder of Dayanand Anglo Vedic School, birth anniversary was celebrated. Children were told about it and they offered greetings and prayers .

Number game : To enhance the numerical skills not only through academics but also through playway method, Number game was taken. Children had to identify and jump on the correct numbers.

Buttoning and unbuttoning activity : To develop fine motor skills and to encourage children to do things independently buttoning and unbuttoning activity was conducted.

Summer Time activity : To introduce summer season to children and also to develop their fine motor skills lemon printing activity was taken in scrap book to make a juice glass and straw was stuck on it..

