

Constitution Day

India, the largest and the most vibrant democracy of the world has the bulkiest written constitution. In order to reiterate the values and principles enshrined in the constitution, the school has celebrated "Constitution Day" on 26 November. Constitution Day (or Samvidhan Divas), also known as National Law Day, is celebrated in India on 26 November every year to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India. Children joined in the virtual meet and participated in reading the constitution from the safe corners of their respective homes.

Teachers explained in brief the fundamental political principles, right, duties and power of the government, and the duties of citizens. The virtual meet was attended by all the students from VI to X. This instilled a feeling of pride and the responsibility of up keeping the law of the land by abiding it. Such activities at a young age, surely make the young minds take pride in the country's historical past and develop a firm belief in the working of a robust democracy.
