

Vigilance Awareness Week

THANE: Vigilance Awareness Week was observed in DAV Public School. As part of it, various activities were conducted. In collaboration with Punjab National Bank and The Hindu in School (THiS) poster-making competition was held for students. The prize distribution programme was held recently. Principal Simmi Juneja and personnel from Punjab National Bank inaugurated the programme. The chief guest Pushkar Tare, general manager, PNB Zonal Office, Mumbai; Rajeev Vasudevan, PNB marketing head; Rashmi Jadhav, manager, Thane branch, Mumbai Branch, branch manager, Thane Branch and P A Sudesh, senior regional manager, The Hindu were given a green welcome by the principal. The guests planted saplings on the school campus.

The winners of the poster-making competition were presented with trophies and cash prizes by the chief guest and the principal. The winners were as follows: Class 8, Sejal Gupta, first prize; Anoushka Ha, second prize and Sonakshi Iore, third prize. Class 9, Nilkanan Saha, first prize; Swapnil Jadhav, second prize and Sankam Nuyak, third prize.

'Vedic Chetna Shivir' at DAV school

THANE: DAV Public School organised 'Vedic Chetna Shivir' for students of class 8, recently. The guest of honour was L. Renu Naik, principal, DAV Milind. Swami Shrikant Anand spoke on various topics related to studies and daily concerns like impact of mobiles, self development, inner awakening and spirituality. He demonstrated the right way of doing 'Surya Namaskar'. An array of activities like painting, music, chair zumba, and indoor games were held. A community kutch of simple yet moral food was served to students. 40 students

A visit to Shri Old Age Home, Ma Nirbhay Orphanage, and Danya Prabhu Orphanage was organized, for students as the part of Community Outreach Services. In the old age home and the orphanages, students presented songs, played music and spread happiness. In the evening, a 'Share your Experience' session was conducted where students shared about their experiences of visiting old age home and orphanages. The day ended with principal Simmi Juneja sharing her thoughts with students.

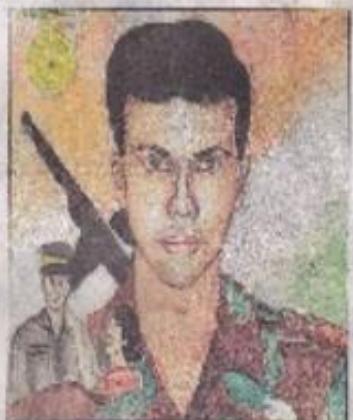

MUMBAI
THURSDAY
NOVEMBER 24, 2022

VEERGATHA

Students of DAV Public School, Thane, displaying their artworks honouring martyrs.

B11D 2

DAV students pay tribute to martyrs

When it comes to instilling patriotism, DAV Public School, Thane, strives to make students aware of the sacrifices made by unsung heroes, gallant martyrs and the country's long struggle for freedom.

The school provided an opportunity to students to showcase their talent.

To continue the celebration of 'Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav', the school had organised a plethora of activities for Grades III to X.

Various activities like poem writing, paragraph writing, essay writing, story writing, painting and drawing have been planned for the students.

Themes of these activities were related to Army heroes. Their bravery and valour.

Students enthusiastically participated in the drawing competition and drew colourful portraits of martyrs, who laid their lives on the line of duty.

They also wrote heart-wrenching stories based on real incidents. Each activity was assessed on the originality of expression, presentation, support (quotes, passages etc.), relevance to the topic, figurative devices, dialogues and innovative techniques used.

These activities will continue till January 2023.

MUMBAI
MONDAY
NOVEMBER 28, 2022

CAMPUS EVENT

Toddlers create memories at DAV

The event was inaugurated by Ganesh Gawde, Deputy Commissioner of Police, Parikshit Dhume, President of the Intellectual Cell of BJP.

HT PHOTO

MUMBAI: DAV Public School, Thane organized a fun-filled weekend carnival for the students of pre-primary and std I on November 12 to 13. The carnival saw parents and children bonding over innovative fun and engaging activities. It was a moment in time when one witnessed parents and children creating memories by celebrating the joy of innocence through scintillating activities and competitions.

The event was inaugurated by Ganesh Gawde, Deputy Commissioner of Police, Parikshit Dhume, President of the Intellectual Cell of BJP Dr Pratiksha Kapadia, Physiotherapist and Vimlesh Sindhu, Principal Rainbow International School, Thane. On this occasion, Mrs Simmi Juneja, Principal of the school, shared that it is the vision of the school to amalgamate fun and learning. The school strives to provide a platform for the students to showcase their talents without feeling the sting of competition. She further added the need to nurture the spirit of humanity among the students.

STUDENTS CAME SO IMAGINATIVELY AND CREATIVELY DRESSED FOR THE FANCY DRESS AND PERFORMED MAGNIFICENTLY IN THE DANCE AND MUSIC COMPETITIONS.

The activities included a puppet show, drawing and colouring session, magic show, food stalls with sumptuous spread, fun-filled rides for the students and activities for the parents like a blindfold, housie, etc.

To bring back childhood memories and a larger goal of extending our learning adventure for the children, this initiative was taken by the school. The students came so imaginatively and creatively dressed for the fancy dress and performed magnificently in the dance and music competitions. The event drew to a close with the lucky draw for the parents. Thus, bringing the curtain down on two days of fun and frolic.

MUMBAI
MONDAY
DECEMBER 19, 2022

CBSE's Bharatiya Bhasha Utsav

MUMBAI: India's rich linguistic heritage was celebrated as "Bharatiya Bhasha Utsav" as per the initiative of CBSE. The National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 which highlights multilingualism and visualises Indian languages as a great tool for national unity, was seen as a chance to promote multi-linguism and cultural mingling. The students of the institute got a chance to learn under the 'Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat' initiative wherein students from different cultural and linguistic backgrounds expressed their specific identities in different forms.

SuI VI & VII- greetings India - Students made placards of different works that are used for greeting in different Indian Regional Languages and read them aloud in the class.

SuI VIII- Multilingualistic poets -

Students wrote poems in different Indian regional languages - Bengali, Oriya, Tamil, Malayalam, Marathi, Gujarati, Punjabi etc in an A4 size sheet on the theme - Unity in Diversity. They recited the lines amidst loud applause and also shared the message of the poems in the class. Students also sang a few lines of folk songs in their respective languages.

SuI IX & X - food and culture - Students drew specific festivals associated with the festivals which are exclusive to their region/state. They also wrote the name of the festivals, rituals performed, food prepared for the occasion and customs word by drawing relevant pictures with aesthetic sense in A4 or A3 sheets. They presented their culture by singing the names and terms in their native tongue which received rousing applause.

All the activities witnessed large scale participation and aroused great deal of interest among students. HT PHOTO

All these activities witnessed large scale participation and aroused great deal of interest among students.

Sports Meet at DAV, Thane

MUMBAI: DAV Public School, Thane, conducted its Sports Meet in November with great fervour and enthusiasm for classes VI to X. It was a well-planned event in which the students were seen participating with great passion. The event was the result of coordinated efforts and meticulous planning by the Sports teacher, House Captains, supporting staff and all the volunteers.

It was held in the first week of November 2022 for Class X. It continued in the second week for Class IX, followed by Class VIII in the third week of November.

The sports meet for classes VII and VI were held in the fourth and fifth week of November respectively which was followed by class XI in the first week of December.

It was held in the first week of Nov for Class X and continued to the second week for class IX. HT PHOTO

THE EVENT WAS THE RESULT OF EFFORTS AND PLANNING BY TEACHERS OF SCHOOL

Stamp designing competition

MUMBAI: A stamp designing competition was organised under 'Hargiz Acam Shreyas Am Stamps' by the Department of Fine Arts with sub themes. Students of DAV Public School, Thane took part in the competition. The competition was open for students from classes 8 to 12. Unleashing creativity and interest, they made designs on the sheets provided by the department. Students brought out their best in the form of unique and vibrant in various fields. The excitement among students to design their ideas and thoughts is on a scale never clearly visible on their faces. The event was celebrated as a festival with fun and frolic, rather than a mere competition.

'Bharatiya Bhasha Utsav'

MUMBAI: India's rich bhasha as a heritage was celebrated as 'Bharatiya Bhasha Utsav' as per the initiative of CBSE at DAV Public School, Thane. Students from classes 6 to 7 made placards of different words that are used for greeting in different Indian regional languages and read it aloud in the class. Students of class 8 wrote poems in different Indian regional languages on the theme 'Diversity in Diversity'. Students of classes 9 and 10 drew specific features associated with the festivals of each one inside for their region or State.

Children's Day celebration

MUMBAI: Children's Day was celebrated with vigour and enthusiasm by students of DAV Public School Thane under the guidance of school principal Savitri Juneja. Teachers made the occasion memorable for children with a special assembly. Children were treated to a medley of songs and a special speech followed by a variety of fun-filled activities.

National Unity Day celebrated

MUMBAI: 'Kushtigra Ekta Diwas' was celebrated by students of DAV Public School, Thane to commemorate the birth anniversary of Sarfaraz Aliibhai Patel, popularly known as the Iron Man of India.

The institution conducted aware activities to support the cause of promoting unity and celebrating National Unity Day.

A special morning assembly was organised. The programme started with the speeches made by students in English, as well as Hindi on the life, history and the role of Sarfaraz Patel towards freedom struggle and his contributions for a harmonious society. Activities like debate, speeches and publications were presented by students. A 'Pledge' March past was also conducted to drive the message of harmonious living amidst diversity. A collaborative pledge on 'Pride and Solidarity' was administered by teachers and students.

Fun-filled carnival

MUMBAI: DAV Public School, Thane organised a fun-filled weekend carnival for students of pre-primary recently. The carnival saw parents and children bonding over innovative fun and engaging activities.

The Kids Carnival was inaugurated by Gaurav Gavaskar, Deputy Commissioner of Mumbai. In the second slot, Parikshit Dhume, president, International Col. 207 and Pratiksha Kapadia, physiotherapist graced the occasion. On the second day, Vibhushan Shinde, principal, Rainbow International school, Thane inaugurated the carnival. Savitri Juneja, principal said that it is the vision of the school to amalgamate fun and learning. The activities included a puppet show, drawing and colouring sessions, a magic show, and so on.

MUSIC IS UNIVERSAL

Music binds our soul, hearts and emotions. It chores the spirit and lightens the heart. To bring out the singing talents of students, DAV Public School Thane organised 'Shining Stars'- a musical extravaganza full of exuberance and zestiness at Kisanmati Chhatrapati Andherchini, Thane. This programme provided budding stars with a platform to lace their dreams in music and showcase their talent. The enthusiastic participants of the musical extravaganza have joined from different schools for Duet-Solo/Musical Band Competition and Group Singing competition in classical and western category. There were as many as 18 schools participated from most notable areas of Thane, Navi Mumbai and New Panvel. The theme for the competition was 'Azaadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav'.

There were many distinguished guests invited from entertainment field to witness the musical extravaganza. The esteemed guest of honour for the occasion, Adirupati Joshua eldest son of Sa Re Ga Ma Pro and his wife Renuka Joshi, a musician of repute was invited for the occasion. The celebrated judges for the occasion were Shanti Prabhu, Boehm Shankha and Diana Kulkarni, who are great exponentes of Classical Music. Amongst them we also had Jawwani Sangeeta Dule, an acting graduate from the Film and Television Institute of India, Pune (FTII) and from Shri Ram Cent-tre for Performing Arts, New Delhi (SRCC). Abhijit Chavhan, a noted Marathi and Hindi film, television and stage actor famous for his comic roles in Marathi theatre and Marathi films and television; Rekha Pillai, the illustrious Alia Bhatt, a celebrated actor, known for essaying the role of Vidya M. Rathnam in the Indian web series 'Alif Ajab'. All the celebrities shared their thought and addressed the gathering.

In the Musical Band Competition, the winners are as follows for their rhythmic and exquisite in structured presentation.

1st - Vasudhara High School
2nd - New Horizon Scholar School

In Senior and Junior Group Singing Competition the winners are as follows for their melodious renditions.

Senior Group Singing Competition:

1st Position: D.A.V. public School, Panvel
2nd Position: Sri Mai Vidyayaya School

Consolation Prizes:

1st - Vasudhara High School
2nd - RK Birla Public School

Junior Group Singing Competition:

1st Position: Lala Purnam High School
2nd Position: D.A.V. International School, Mumbai

Consolation Prizes: Amber International School

Audience thoroughly enjoyed the multifarious songs and were impressed with the confidence, the vocal quality and the enthusiasm with which they sang. The students were well appreciated by the judges. The competition was a great success.

डी.ए.वी. ठाणे ने दीपावली अक्षम लोगों के संग मनायी

डी.

ए ई लिंचालन ताणे ने विषय पर बल्लंत सेवक परिषद्मा मि ली
दीपावली के शुभ अवसर पर गयी
आय प्रायोंइक प्रातिनिधि रूपा
के अन्तर्गत घिनांका २१.१०.२०२२
प्राप्ति तो उत्तम रूपा दिलाई गयी।

इस प्रतीत करने में — की सेवनल
एस्टेट्सेइलन औफ लिंचालन हॉटेल्सइचो...
के से लिंचालन को देखा जाएगा।