D.A.V. PUBLIC SCHOOL, THANE
SESSION: 2026–2027
A CELEBRATION OF RHYTHM, TRADITION AND TOGETHERNESS
"When Tradition Meets Rhythm, Joy Knows No Bounds!"

DAV Public School, Thane, organised a vibrant Dandiya and Garba celebration for the students of Std. VI, VII and VIII, transforming the school's concrete ground into a lively arena of colours, music and festive cheer. The celebration offered students an opportunity to experience the rich cultural heritage of India while embracing the spirit of unity, joy and togetherness.

Dressed in colourful traditional attire, the students added a festive charm to the occasion. The ground came alive with the rhythmic beats of traditional Garba and Dandiya music as students enthusiastically participated in the celebration. Called class-wise to the venue, the students enjoyed the festivities in an organised manner, ensuring a smooth and memorable experience for everyone.

Adding warmth to the celebration, class teachers and subject teachers joined the students, enthusiastically participating in the dances and sharing their joyful moments. Their involvement strengthened the bond between teachers and students, creating an atmosphere of camaraderie and mutual appreciation. The celebration became more than a festive gathering; it evolved into a beautiful expression of the school community coming together beyond the confines of the classroom.

The event also served as a meaningful reminder of the importance of preserving India's cultural traditions and appreciating its diversity. Through music, dance and collective participation, students experienced the values of cooperation, respect for traditions and social harmony. The colourful attire, cheerful faces and energetic movements reflected the enthusiasm of young learners as they celebrated the festive spirit with great excitement.

The Dandiya and Garba celebration concluded on a joyous note, leaving behind cherished memories and strengthening the sense of belonging among students and teachers alike. It was a delightful blend of culture, rhythm and togetherness, reaffirming that such celebrations play a significant role in nurturing well-rounded learners who remain connected to their cultural roots while building meaningful relationships.

Glimpses of the celebration

