

An Ecstatic Life

Let's be so busy loving each other , that we forget what hate is.

Let's be so busy helping others that we hardly remember how many times did we succour.

Let's be so busy appreciating others that every person on this exquisite earth realizes his self - worth.

Let's be so busy working hard
That success it self can not live apart

Let's be so busy relishing these lives,
That no one will forget these beautiful smiles!!
