Dear Parents,

Warm Greetings!

At D.A.V. Public School, Thane, we steadfastly believe in nurturing curious, compassionate, and culturally conscious learners who carry within them a profound pride in India's glorious heritage and a deep sense of duty towards its preservation.

In keeping with our vision of holistic and value-based education, the school is delighted to organize a NO BAG DAY, thoughtfully integrated with a Heritage that celebrates the splendour of India's cultural, artistic, and historical richness.

This immersive and experiential learning initiative aims to offer students of Std. III – V a vibrant, joyful, and intellectually stimulating platform where they can explore, express, and celebrate the essence of India's diverse heritage while embracing the spirit of global citizenship through DTMUN (DAV Thane Model United Nations).

The activity will be conducted on Friday, 14th November 2025.

OBJECTIVES OF DTMUN:

- To cultivate awareness, appreciation, and admiration for India's magnificent cultural and natural heritage.
- To encourage students to value ancient monuments, exquisite art forms, traditional crafts, and timeless customs.
- To instill a strong sense of responsibility and sensitivity towards heritage preservation and environmental conservation.
- To develop oratory excellence, research aptitude, and persuasive presentation skills.
- To promote team spirit, confidence, creativity, and leadership qualities.
- To foster respect for India's vibrant diversity, strengthening the spirit of unity, patriotism, and pride in our shared legacy.

DTMUN 2025 seeks to weave together heritage appreciation and global understanding, empowering young minds to become guardians of the past and ambassadors of the future. Through engaging presentations, spirited discussions, and imaginative exhibits, students will embark on a journey across time, exploring the splendour of ancient civilizations, architectural marvels, folk traditions, and historical narratives that define our nation's identity.

This initiative will inspire students to cherish their roots, embrace diversity, and recognize the beauty of India's unity in diversity — nurturing in them a lifelong commitment to preserve and protect the invaluable treasures of our heritage.

GUIDELINES

- Students of Std. III and IV will research and present on different states of India, showcasing their distinct cultural heritage, art, architecture, monuments, attire, festivals, and traditions.
- Students of Std. V will focus on heritage conservation, highlighting the need to safeguard monuments, cultural practices, and historical landmarks for future generations.
- Students are encouraged to bring their ideas to life using vivid charts, creative models, colourful props or miniature replicas, making their presentations interactive and visually captivating.
- The specific topics and themes will be shared by the respective subject teachers.
