Dear Parents, Greetings!!

“Orators don’t speak to impress—they speak to awaken, to ignite, and to transform.”

Oratory is more than just the art of speaking—it's the power to move minds, stir emotions, and inspire action. Throughout history, great orators have stood at the forefront of change. Excellent public speaking skills, help to boost other skills and abilities.

The objective of the speech is to build confidence, influence, engage, educate, or entertain the listeners.

In an effort to enhance the oratory skills of our students and making them powerful orators, the Oratory Club offers a plethora of activities, wherein the children can showcase their innate talent.
