Patriotic Fervour

The 78th Independence Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm and patriotic fervor at DAV Public School, Thane, on August 15th. Students arrived in pristine white uniforms, creating a peaceful and serene atmosphere that perfectly captured the solemnity of the occasion.

The event commenced with the Guard of Honour, led with precision by the school head boy. Following this, the national flag was hoisted, and the National Anthem was sung with heartfelt emotion. The Maharashtra Raj Geet further added a sense of regional pride to the proceedings.

The march-past, led by the NCC cadets, showcased discipline and dedication. They were followed by the students and council members, who marched with equal enthusiasm. One of the highlights of the celebration was the cultural performances, which began with a soulful patriotic song. The Kavi Sammelan was presented by students arousing patriotic fervour. Additionally, the pre-primary students delighted everyone with a lively patriotic dance. The audience, including parents, warmly applauded the students for their impressive performances.

In her concise speech, the principal appreciated the staff for their tireless efforts and commended the students for their discipline and excellent performances. "Together, we are shaping the future leaders of our nation," she remarked.

The celebration continued with the felicitation of students who excelled in inter school music competition, yoga competitions, and NCC activities. After the vote of thanks, the assembly joined in singing Vande Mataram, filling the air with patriotic fervor. The event concluded with the distribution of sweets, leaving everyone with a sense of pride and joy, making the day truly memorable.
